

FSA Conferences

Title	Description	Delivery Format	Duration	Schedule
Delivery System Videoconference	Discusses annual changes and enhancements to the delivery system for the upcoming processing year. Recommended for Financial Aid Administrators who work with the application process (including FAFSA, FAFSA renewal, and ISIRs). Link: &lt;&lt;placeholder for link&gt;&gt;	Video conference	3 hours	Annually-- November
High School Counselors/TRIO Videoconference	The purpose of this videoconference is to provide high school guidance counselors and counselors working with the TRIO programs with an overview of the application and awarding process of federal financial aid programs. Prior experience suggests there may also be high school or college students and financial aid administrators in the viewing audience. While not the primary intended audience, content will be presented in a way that will also be relevant for them. The organization and content of the broadcast will be similar the December 2002 videoconference for high school and TRIO counselors. Six topics are tentatively scheduled for coverage: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Introducing the federal student aid programs and process</li> <li>2. Completing the FAFSA</li> <li>3. Using FAFSA on the Web</li> <li>4. Getting Results</li> <li>5. What does a college do?</li> <li>6. Where to find information</li> </ol> Recommended for high school counselors and counselors working with TRIO programs. Link: &lt;&lt;placeholder for link&gt;&gt;	Video conference	3 hours	Annually-- December

FSA Conferences

Title	Description	Delivery Format	Duration	Schedule
Electronic Access Conferences	These fall EAC conferences provide a wide variety of general sessions, interest sessions and hands-on sessions designed to provide attendees with an opportunity to learn about and prepare for electronic processing. The EAC conferences also provide attendees with an opportunity to get to know ED Staff and to get directly involved in the latest Title IV electronic initiatives. Also available at each conference is the PC Lab where attendees can use actual FSA software and visit FSA websites. ED staff are available to assist attendees on a wide range of financial aid topics. Recommended for all financial aid administrators. Link: http://edeworkshop.ncspearson.com/SanDiego.htm http://edeworkshop.ncspearson.com/NewOrleans.htm	Conference	Two in the Fall, One in the Spring	Annually
Non-FSA conferences	A number of state, regional and national financial aid professional associations hold conferences throughout the year. These conferences provide a wide variety of presentations on financial aid issues and often include presentations by FSA staff as well as financial aid administrators and other experts. Information about these conferences is posted on the Schools Portal Calendar as well as professional association web site. The National Association of Financial Aid Administrators website will provide additional information, training options and a link to your regional association. NASFAA link: http://www.nasfaa.org/Home.asp	Conference	Multiple during the year	Annually